In Conjunction with

History of Modern Israel

Instructor: Dr. Kenneth W. Stein

Course Description

This undergraduate lecture course will review the history of modern Israel from the inception of Zionism to the present. The four periods of study will be the ideological formations (to 1917), Zionist autonomy in Palestine (to 1948), the problems and successes of sovereignty (to 1977) and the quest for identity and normalization (to the present). Issues to be discussed will include the structure of the old and new Yishuv, immigrations to Eretz Yisrael, British rule in Palestine, Arab-Israel wars, relationships with the great powers, sociological associations and cleavages, Israeli literature, Israel-Diaspora relations, religion and state policy interaction, the political and economic systems, constitutional issues, Arab-Israeli wars and the peace process with Arab neighbors.

Requirements

There will be a final examination.

Students are expected to do all the readings assigned here, both the required texts and reserve readings.

For your interest and individual viewing, Tkuma, a six part video (VCR) produced for Israel's 50th anniversary celebration provides the best pictorial history of Israel's origins, evolution, and present state of affairs. Each video is 55 minutes in length.
